PROFILE

As a Full Stack Developer, I work to improve the connection between code and social progress through collaboration. Just like great music and the prolific artists who produce it - powerful products can only be built by teams dedicated to moving forward.

PROJECTS

Wikly ~> http://guarded-atoll-54755.herokuapp.com
• Time management web-app that sets events and important dates on a weekly basis.
• Launched on Heroku and utilizes HTML/CSS, JavaScript, Ruby on Rails and SQlite3.
• Worked collaboratively with another developer splitting tasks and reviewing other's work.

Venmue ~> http://venmue.herokuapp.com
• Venue listing site using a database driven framework to allow users to list their venue and find venues to plan their events.
• Uses google maps api to populate a dynamic map with markers relevant to users input.
